

NARA Referral Not Required, JMc,
ER&L, 8/6/02

White House Central Files
Subject Files

FG - FG 6-3 Federal Government - Organizations

FG	Federal Government - Organizations
FG 1	President of the United States
FG 2	Former Presidents
FG 3	Transition to Incoming Administration
FG 5	The Executive Branch
FG 6-1	Bureau of the Budget
FG 6-2	Central Intelligence Agency
FG 6-3	Council of Economic Advisors

National Archives and Records Administration
Nixon Presidential Materials Staff

Processed by Bonnie C. Baldwin

WHITE HOUSE CENTRAL FILES

SUBJECT FILES

FG - FG 6-3 Federal Government - Organizations

This collection spans several file categories. The categories include files relating to the Federal Government (FG), the President of the United States (FG 1 - FG 1-3-2), Former Presidents (FG 2), Administration Transitions (FG 3), the Executive Branch (FG 5), the Executive Office of the President (FG 6) and three offices thereunder: the Bureau of the Budget (FG 6-1), the Central Intelligence Agency (FG 6-2) and the Council of Economic Advisors (FG 6-3).

The Executive file category within these subject categories includes the correspondence of the President, White House Staff and Administration officials with heads of state, members of Congress, political party members, personal acquaintances and business, patriotic and special interest organizations. The General file category mainly contains correspondence of the President and White House Staff with members of Congress, business, patriotic and special interest organizations and the general public. Many of the same subjects and correspondents, however, may be found in both files. Some of the files are subdivided numerically by country (/CO#) or by appointment papers (/A).

The subject category for Federal Government Organizations (FG) contains materials to, from or about the Federal Government branches or agencies. Subjects include the establishment, disestablishment, organization, reorganization, audits, inspections, location, re-location, regulations, reports and appointments and endorsements to top positions. Frequent correspondents include: President Richard Nixon, Vice President Spiro Agnew, Anne Armstrong, Arthur Burns, John Ehrlichman, Robert Finch, Chester Finn, Peter Flanagan, Bryce Harlow, Dwight Ink, Egil Krogh, Charles Mayo, Daniel Moynihan, John Price, John Whitaker and Charles Wilkinson. Related materials may be found in the following subject categories:

FG 1-1	Delegations of Authority
FG 999	Proposed Departments - Agencies - Boards - Commissions
FI 4	Budget - Appropriations
HE 9	Sanitary Services - Pollution control
PE 2	Employment - Appointments
RA	Real Property
RM	Religious Matters

WE 9
WH 1

Welfare: Youth Programs
White House Administration: Budget

The subject category for the President of the United States (FG 1) concerns the Administration's policies and accomplishments. Included are discussions of domestic and foreign issues, government reorganization, analyses of media reporting and public polls and topics related to the office of the President. Frequent correspondents include: President Richard Nixon, Stephen Bull, Kenneth Cole, Robert Ellsworth, John Ehrlichman, Bryce Harlow, Herbert Klein, Daniel Moynihan, John Price, William Safire, John Whitaker and Ronald Ziegler. Related materials may be found in the following subject categories:

FG 10	The Cabinet
FI	Finance
FI 4	Budget - Appropriations
✓JL 3	Criminal Matters
✓PL	Political Affairs
PR 11	Motion Pictures - Film Strips - Recordings
✓PR 14	Presidential Favors
PR 16	Publicity - Newsleaks
PU 2-3	Clippings - Editorials
WE	Welfare
WH 2-1	White House Administration: Furnishings
✓WH 2-2-1	White House Administration: Rooms

Also filed in this subject category are materials concerning the delegation of the President's authority (FG 1-1), appointments of Personal Representatives of the President to ceremonial events and diplomatic negotiations (FG 1-2, FG 1-2/CO) and inaugural festivities (FG 1-3, FG 1-3-1, FG 1-3-2). Frequent correspondents include: President Nixon, John Brown III, John Campbell, Kenneth Cole, Jeane Davis, John Ehrlichman, Edwin Harper, Harry Hopkins, Richard Fairbanks, Leonard Garment, David Gergen, Henry Kissinger, Herbert Klein, Thomas Korologos, Robert Mayo, Gen. Brent Scowcroft, William Timmons, Rose Mary Woods and Ronald Ziegler.

Materials related to the delegation of the President's authority (FG 1-1) may be found in the following subject categories:

DI	Disasters
FA	Federal Aid
FE 6	Executive Orders
✓FO 3-2	Mutual Security
FO 4-1	Balance of Payments
✓FO 9	Treaties

The following subject categories contain materials related to the appointments of Personal Representatives of the President to ceremonial events and diplomatic negotiations (FG 1-2, FG 1-2/CO):

consent of the Senate. Under the direction of the National Security Council, the Agency coordinates the intelligence activities of several government departments and agencies. The materials in this subject category include correspondence between President Nixon and the CIA Directors; appointments of the Director and Deputy Director; CIA technical assistance to the White House, the declassification of documents, and allegations concerning suspected CIA agents or actions. Frequent correspondents include: President Nixon, Jeanne Davis, John Ehrlichman, Gen. Alexander Haig, CIA Director Richard Helms, W. Richard Howard, Henry Kissinger, Daniel Moynihan, Brent Scowcroft and William Timmons. Some of the materials have been transferred to the White House Special Files, White House Central Files, Confidential Files ([CF] FG 6-2, Box 13). Additional information may be found in the following subject categories:

✓ FG 6-6	National Security Council
FG 6-20	Council on International Economic Policy
✓ FG 208	President's Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board
FG 330	Cabinet Committee on International Narcotics Control
✓ FG 355	Cabinet Committee to Combat Terrorism
✓ JL 3	Criminal Matters
PR 16-2	Press Conferences
ND 6-2	Intelligence - Subversive Activities Control
✓ ND 8-7	Military Personnel - Promotions
ND 13	Security - Classified Information
ND 18	Wars
UT	Utilities
WH 2, 8	White House Administration: Buildings, Supplies, Materials, Services

The Foreign Broadcast Information Service (FBIS) (subject category FG 6-2-1) was first established as the Foreign Broadcast Monitoring Service in the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) by a Presidential directive of February 26, 1941. The Service was renamed Foreign Broadcast Intelligence Service by an FCC order of July 28, 1942, and transferred to the War Department by a War Secretarial Order of Dec. 30, 1945. An Act of May 3, 1945 (59 Stat. 110) provided for liquidation 60 days after Japanese armistice. On August 5, 1946, the Service was

STAT

Service. There are a few materials in this category concerning translation services, publications and the 30th anniversary of the FBIS. Correspondents include: President Nixon, Lyndon Allin, Jeanne Davis, Henry Kissinger and Gerald Warren. Further information may be found in the following subject categories:

of federal surplus properties are among the topics in this subject category. Agencies and organizations mentioned in this file include: the Civil Aeronautics Board, the Atomic Energy Commission, the Council for Urban Affairs, the Rural Affairs Council, the Export-Import Bank, the Tennessee Valley Authority, the Veteran's Administration, and the National Aeronautic and Space Administration.

FG 6-2

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

Topics in this file include references to President Nixon's visit to the Central Intelligence Agency on Sept. 18, 1972, the President's Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board, the Cabinet Committee to Combat Terrorism,  the Pueblo crew, alleged Korean War prisoners, drugs, speaking invitations of the CIA Directors, various congressional bills, the CIA Retirement Act, newspaper articles by Jack Anderson about security leaks, the CIA vs. [Victor] Marchetti case, the declassification of documents, the Agency's 25th anniversary, and CIA technical support to the White House.

STAT

FG 6-2-1

STATSPEC

FG 6-3

COUNCIL OF ECONOMIC ADVISORS

This subject category includes materials pertaining to the President's Annual Report to Congress, the annual reports of the Council of Economic Advisors (CEA), meetings of the Troika (Chairman of the CEA, Secretary of the Treasury and Director of the Bureau of the Budget) and the Quadriad (Troika members and the Chairman of the Federal Reserve Board), and CEA members' job appointments, speeches and meetings with industry leaders and reports and analyses to the President on economic statistical indicators, such as price indexes, the gross national product,

STATSPEC

[illegible]